

UPRM COVID-19 Recovery Corps

An Initiative of the Business and Economic Development Center: an EDA University Center

Brief Introduction

UPRM CRC Team as of March 2022

David Santiago Rosado, PhD.
Economic Recovery Specialist
Project's Principal Investigator
UPRM
david.santiago8@upr.edu

Dra. Moraima De Hoyos
BDEC Director
UPRM
moraima.dehoyos1@upr.edu

Maria de los Angeles Riestra, MBA
COVID-19 Recovery Project Manager
UPRM
maria.riestra@upr.edu

Alexxa González Rivera
Finance student
COVID-19 Recovery Corps Project Assistant
UPRM
alexxa.gonzalez1@upr.edu

Joankimberly Giovanetti
Administrative Coordinator
joankimbe.giovanetty@upr.edu

Project Summary

A qualified team of proven practitioners provide technical assistance on demand through virtual mentoring to

NGO'S

Institutions of Higher Education

Municipalities

State
Agencies

engaged in submitting economic development proposals to federal and state agencies, and/or private foundations.

An Initiative of the Business and Economic Development Center

Funded by EDA

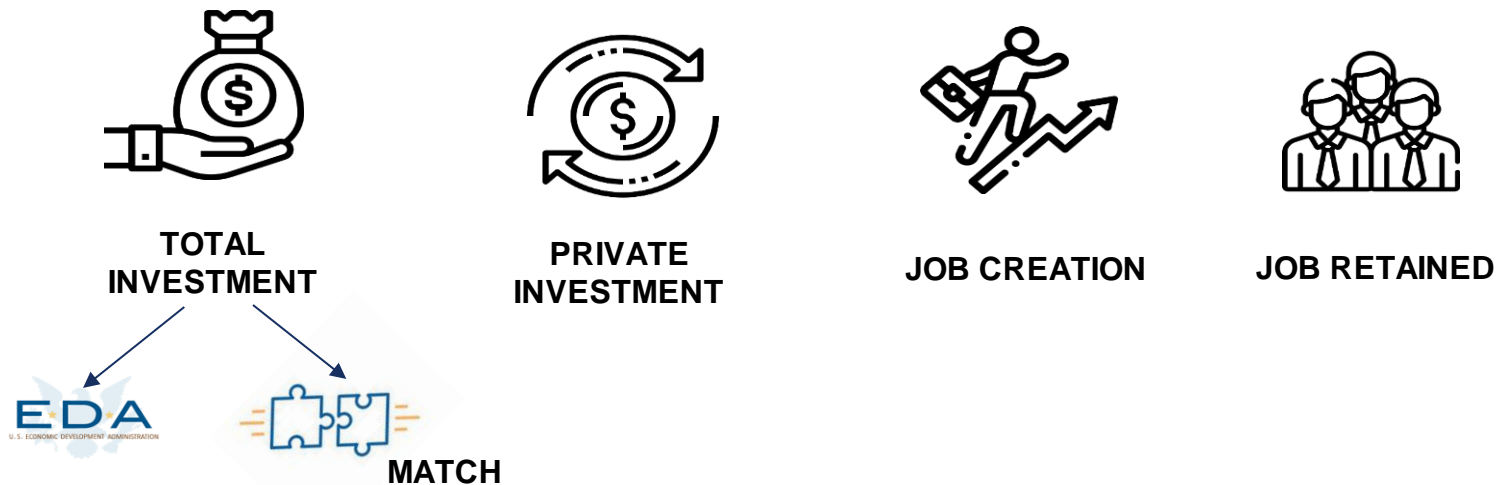

Scope: Puerto Rico and
US Virgin Islands

Project objectives

The main objectives of these proposals are planning and implementing projects to enable them, or their beneficiaries respond to coronavirus economic injury and foster a vibrant economic recovery ecosystem.

Projects' Metrics

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE

Pre-
Award Qualifications
DUNS, SAMS,
Grants.gov

Review
& discuss proposals to
EDA

Review
& discuss proposals to
other federal or state
agencies

Post Award assistance

FIVE-STEP PROCESS

1

Client fills Assistance Request

2

Team coordinates first meeting and makes Initial assessment.

Client completes proposal checklist & Project Profile.

3

Team reviews Project Profile and coordinates meeting with local EDA representatives.

4

For EDA Proponents: team reviews & gives assistance from draft to final version of proposal.

Other proponents: Depends on grantor requirements and team capacities

5

Once the assistance is completed, clients fill an Evaluation form.

