

Evidence 2023.2.2.2: Classroom Management Techniques

Evidence Overview

Teach Like a Champion 2.0" is an invaluable resource for students in the Education Preparation Program (EPP) at the University of Puerto Rico Mayaguez. This book, authored by Doug Lemov, offers a comprehensive guide to effective teaching techniques and strategies, providing EPP students with the tools they need to become successful educators. By emphasizing practical, research-based methods for classroom management, lesson planning, and student engagement, this book equips aspiring teachers with a solid foundation for their teaching careers. The book's clear and actionable insights can help EPP students develop the skills necessary to address the unique challenges and opportunities presented by the diverse educational landscape in Puerto Rico, ultimately preparing them to make a meaningful impact in the lives of their future students.

Teach Like a Champion 2.0" also recognizes the importance of culturally responsive teaching, which is particularly relevant in the context of the University of Puerto Rico Mayaguez. By fostering an understanding of how to adapt these proven teaching techniques to the specific cultural and linguistic backgrounds of Puerto Rican students, the book empowers EPP students to create inclusive and effective learning environments. In a region where educational equity is a pressing issue, this resource helps future educators in the EPP program develop the skills and mindset necessary to address these challenges and work toward improving education for all students in Puerto Rico.
