

E-SHIP RECAP

03/06/17 -
03/12/17

THIS WEEK ON E-SHIP

W2 Social | March 7

About 30 enthusiastic student and professors heard Paul Curren, winner of Hit 3001 competition and founder of Bajari Handcrafted Chocolate, talk about the importance of innovation. Click here for more info.

Entrepreneurship, The Accenture Way | February 9

Accenture was on campus explaining how its possible to be an entrepreneur inside its company and how they actively promote entrepreneurship within Accenture. Click here for more info.

3D Printing Certificate Workshops | March 9

The Idea Platform tribe, Empower 3D, successfully finished their 3D Printing Certificate Workshops series at the maker space, Starting Point. 37 students learned how to properly use 3D Printing technology. Click here for more info.

Science Café | March 11

The first Science Café of 2017 had as title "What it takes to be a chemistry entrepreneur?". Around 50 came to this activity which was part of an initiative led by the organization ACS to promote entrepreneurship and innovation within the scientific field of Puerto Rico. Click here for more info.

*Click on photos for more information

UP NEXT ON E-SHIP

Engineering Entrepreneurship
- March 14 -

University Innovation Fellows
- March 15 -
UIF program empowers students globally to become leaders of change. It consists of online training, in-person meetups, mentorship, tools, resources and national convenings.

INprende Tour Picnic
- March 16 -

NVDE
Be on the look out for the Info Session Tour date at the end of March

Pathways to Innovation Grant
- March 31 -

Expo Ideas
- April 28 -