

U.S. Department of Transportation

Summer Transportation Internship Program for Diverse Groups

The Summer Transportation Internship Program for Diverse Groups (STIPDG) is your unique opportunity to get hands-on public service experience while discovering the challenges and advancements of U.S. transportation infrastructure. Whether you are an undergraduate, graduate or law school student, you will help make the U.S. home to the safest, most efficient and most convenient transportation system in the world.

This program is a critical part of U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) efforts to increase diverse representation in its workforce. Students from minority populations are encouraged to apply. Through an internship at DOT, you will build your professional network, develop vital skills and learn about exciting opportunities. If you identify your passion during the experience, you're encouraged to consider a government career by applying at USAJOBS.gov.

Stipend Details

- Roundtrip airfare and fully-furnished housing provided (if your permanent residence is more than 50 miles away). Only if in person internship is offered, TBD.
- Undergraduate students receive $4,000, graduate and law school students receive $5,000.

Eligibility Requirements

In order to apply, you will need to:

- Be a U.S. Citizen.
