

INGE 4008

Course Title Interdisciplinary Approaches to Project Management

Course Description The student would be able to learn first hand techniques from guest speakers and should have a practical experience on how to apply the concepts of project management that they learn in the fundamentals of project management course. This course will provide an opportunity to manage real case projects using an interdisciplinary approach where students with different backgrounds develop solutions to real project from the public and private sector. Field trips are required and detailed knowledge of computer applications.

Credit Hours 3

Course Options Exchange..... No
Special Topic..... No
Type.....Normal
Offering Semester..... Always
Students can take this course multiple times.....No

Grading Schema Passing Grade D

Requisites Prerequisite ADMI 4085

Course Syllabus