4. Please provide any additional information about the information provided above:

The General Application Index (GAI) in the Spanish IGS indicates whether a student qualifies for admission to a particular academic program. The General Application Index is calculated by combining the 50% high school average with the 50% from the College Entrance Examination Board (or the SAT) academic aptitude tests. Each Academic Program has a different GAI and may vary from one year to another.

Supervised Clinical Experience

Note: The clinical experience requirements in this section are preloaded from the prior year's IPRC. Teacher preparation providers will enter the number of participants each year.

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2024-25. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(C\)\(iii\), §205\(a\)\(1\)\(C\)\(iv\))

Are there programs with student teaching models?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide the next two responses. If no, leave them blank.

Programs with student teaching models (most traditional programs)

Number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to student teaching

Number of clock hours required for student teaching

Are there programs in which candidates are the teacher of record?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide the next two responses. If no, leave them blank.

Programs in which candidates are the teacher of record in a classroom during the program (many alternative programs)

Number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to teaching as the teacher of record in a classroom

Years required of teaching as the teacher of record in a classroom

All Programs

Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE staff)

Optional tool for automatically calculating full-time equivalent faculty in the system

Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE staff)

Number of cooperating teachers/K-12 staff supervising clinical experience during this academic year

Number of students in supervised clinical experience during this academic year

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Candidates' field experience begins with 15 hours of classroom observation for the "Nature and Needs of Exceptional Children" course. For this experience, candidates are placed in schools serving students with disabilities or in specialized classrooms for students with special needs to observe diversity and differences among learners and the interventions used. Prior to the student teaching or practicum, 15 hours of field observations are required during the Teaching Methodology course. For this experience, candidates are placed in public or private schools to observe cooperative teachers. In most cases, candidates will realize their practice teaching in the same school with the same cooperating teacher. This practice affords candidates an opportunity to become familiar with the school community and teaching practice. During the Student Teaching or Practicum course, candidates are required to complete 180 hours, during which they will teach a class at the level and in the specialty of their desired specialization. The Agricultural Education Program requires two Teaching Practice courses, EDAG 4018 and EDAG 4019. These candidates must perform six hours of laboratory work each week, each semester.

Enrollment and Program Completers

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2024-25.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2024-25

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2024-25. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Program Assurances

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Program Assurances

Respond to the following assurances. Teacher preparation programs should be prepared to provide documentation and evidence, when requested, to support the following assurances. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(iii\); §206\(b\))

Program Assurances

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

1. Program preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

- Yes
 No

2. Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

- Yes
 No

3. Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

- Yes
 No
 Program does not prepare special education teachers

4. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

- Yes
 No

5. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

- Yes
 No

6. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

- Yes
 No

7. Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

- Yes
 No

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

The Puerto Rico Department of Education (PRDE) informs island Teacher Preparation Program directors and personnel in annual meetings regarding policy changes and departmental professional needs. The PRDE provides orientation and training for Teacher Preparation Program personnel when standards, curricular guidelines, or other such documents change. Our candidates complete 30 hours of classroom observation as field experiences before enrolling in the teaching practicum course. During these hours of observation, candidates experience teachers' classroom realities. Candidates' first clinical experience consists of 15 hours of classroom observation in the "Nature and Needs of Exceptional Children" course. For this experience, candidates are placed in schools (rural, urban, low-income) serving students with disabilities or in specialized classrooms for students with special needs to observe diversity and differences among learners. The course emphasizes effective strategies for working with diverse learners, including those with disabilities. The last supervised field experience is 15 hours (minimum) of classroom observation in the candidate's content area during the Teaching Methodology course. For this experience, candidates are placed in public or private schools to observe cooperative teachers. In most cases, candidates will realize their practice teaching in the same school with the same cooperating teacher. This practice affords candidates an opportunity to become familiar with the school community. For most of Puerto Rico's population, English is a second language. At the university, most of the textbooks and assigned readings are in English. All our students can speak both English and Spanish. Teacher candidates must complete twelve credits in English during their first two years at the university. They are well-prepared to work with limited English proficient students. Most of our teacher candidates are from low-income families and rural areas, so they are well able to identify with the typical school population.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(B\)\)

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact RTI's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(D\), §205\(a\)\(1\)\(E\))

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

Low-Performing

1. Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

- Yes
- No

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

- State
- CAEP
- AAQEP
- Other specify:

2. Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state?

- Yes
- No

Use of Technology

On this page, review the questions regarding your program's use of technology, and update as needed.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes

No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Our teacher candidates are recommended to take a learning evaluation course (EDFU 3017). In that course, they learn how to prepare daily plans and organize teaching units that include appropriate assessment and evaluation techniques. The candidates learn to use assessment data to plan and revise instruction and to predict future conduct. They also learn how to design a valid assessment instrument and measure its effectiveness. Teacher candidates are required to take EDPE 3077 INTEGRATION OF TECHNOLOGY WITH DISTANCE AND VIRTUAL TEACHING STRATEGIES. This course emphasizes integration and effective use of technology in the teaching and learning process. Candidates prepare numerous digital artifacts and documents throughout this course, including their electronic portfolio. Candidates add work and assessments from subsequent teacher preparation courses to that portfolio, culminating in their Teacher Candidate Work Sample (TCWS) during their teaching practicum. The TCWS requires candidates to analyze assessment data, plan future instruction based on this analysis, consider alternatives that might be more effective, and demonstrate how technology was used to improve student learning. The Teacher Candidate Work Samples and electronic portfolios serve as key assessment tools for the Teacher Preparation Program. We offer, as free electives 5 additional technology courses for prospective teachers to learn how to teach distance effectively.

Teacher Training

>> Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Our teacher candidates take several courses that help them develop the specialized skills and knowledge needed to work with diverse students, including those with disabilities and special needs. Those courses include: Foundations of Human Growth and Development (EDFU 3011), Educational Psychology (EDFU 3012), and the Nature and Needs of Exceptional Child (EDES 4006). We offer 6 additional Special Education courses that prospective teachers can enroll in. Some of these courses are Assistive Technology in Special Education, Behavior Modification Applied to a Classroom Setting, and Educational Strategies for the inclusion of students with special needs in the regular classroom. Agriculture candidates have to participate in Future Farmers of America (FFA) meetings, where they receive training to work with special populations. Physical education students take elective courses in adaptive physical education to improve their skills in working with special populations.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Teacher candidates must complete the course "Nature and Needs of the Exceptional Child" (EDES 4006). This course offers an overview of the psychological and educational needs of exceptional learners. It provides the experiences and knowledge necessary for the design and implementation of curricular programs, as well as for special teaching techniques and strategies appropriate for exceptional learners. Laboratory and field experiences are integral to the course. So this allows students to learn about IEP meetings in a real setting.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

In Puerto Rico, Spanish is the main language, so some students have had limitations in English at some point. Future teachers know these limitations because they have experienced them, so they learn within their concentration to work with those limitations.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card (see below). The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The Department of Agricultural Education in the College of Agriculture is responsible for all aspects of agriculture teacher preparation. The traditional Educational Programs offered by UPR-Mayaguez are Math Education, Physical Education (offered by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences), and Agricultural Education (offered by the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences). The content courses are offered in these departments, but the education courses are offered in the Teacher Preparation Program under the Academic Affairs Deanship. Frequently, the top score in the Puerto Rico Teacher Certification Exam is achieved by a completer of the UPRM Math Education program. The Agricultural Education Program is the only program in Puerto Rico that prepares agriculture teachers. All Puerto Rico's agriculture teachers were prepared at UPRM. The Puerto Rico Department of Education requires agriculture teachers to be licensed agronomists. A licensed agronomist may work as an agriculture extension agent. Agriculture teachers participate in Future Farmers of America (FFA), in which students learn to work with animals, to sow and grow plants, and to organize recycling activities. The web page for Agricultural Education is: <https://www.uprm.edu/ciag/edag/>. <https://www.uprm.edu/edag/> In addition to preparing excellent teachers, the Physical Education Program offers a summer camp every year for children who are blind or have visual impairments. Most of our Physical Education Teacher Candidates volunteer at this summer camp. The web pages for the Physical Education Program are: <http://edfi.uprm.edu/> and <https://wordpress.uprm.edu>. Our Teacher Preparation Program was classified as Excellent by the Puerto Rico Department of Education in 2022. The Program was accredited in March 2010 by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) with no areas for improvement, and all six elements met the Target level. That accreditation was officially extended by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) on May 30, 2018 & November 2024.
